

Environmental Policy

Basic Concept

Based on the management principle, Daido Steel will contribute to "the establishment of an environmentally-oriented society" and "environmental preservation on a global scale" through its business activities with a long-term global point of view.

Policies and Activities]

1. Reduction of environmental impacts and to contribute to environmental preservation
  - Promotion of resource savings and zero emission
  - Promotion of energy savings
  - Strengthening of organizational structure for environmental preservation
  - Compliance with all environmental-related law
  - Quick action to any changes in environmental legislation
2. Social contribution activities
  - Development and provision of environmentally-friendly products and facilities
  - Expanding in new environmental business
  - Promotion of overseas technical assistance
3. Eco-Communication
  - Promotion of environmental education
  - Disclosure and provision of environmental information
  - Support to environmental activity of affiliates

Organizational Framework

